

MACARTHUR GROUP LEADER GUIDE

For the week of March 17, 2024

COMMUNITY GROUP VISION AND MISSION

Community groups exist to lead each other and the community to trust and follow Christ. As a church, we want to delight in God first and make disciples who make disciples. Disciples are those who are following Jesus, are being changed by Jesus, and are committed to the mission of Jesus.

RELATIONAL GUIDELINES

It is important that we make everyone feel valued as they share. These guidelines exist to help you facilitate conversation in your group that will help others learn and understand the importance of having intentional conversations.

WE PROVIDE A SAFE PLACE | This is a place where people can be open, real, and honest with their struggles and victories. What is shared in the group stays in the group.

WE LISTEN WELL | Let's value one another during discussions by really listening to what is being shared. Try to avoid thinking about how you are going to respond or what you are going to say next. Allow a pause in conversation after someone shares. Allow silence in the group as necessary. Silence provides an opportunity for members of the group to process the topic or question being considered.

WE CULTIVATE CONVERSATION | Be considerate of others as they share - no side conversations. Be sensitive about the amount of time you share. Be self-aware of how you are personally affecting the environment through your words, actions, and non-verbal communication.

WE OWN OUR INPUT | It's easy to talk about the issues of others, but for our purposes, we want you to put yourself on the table. Try to use "I" statements rather than "them," "the church," "us," "we," etc. Let's own what we say.

WE REFLECT RATHER THAN RESOLVE | We are not here to fix each other. Jesus does that part. Give encouragement: speak truth, and point people to Jesus. Don't try to solve problems. When people are sharing something deeply personal, let them. These times of sharing often lead to great reflection on what God is doing in our hearts, so do not try to rescue someone to make them feel better about themselves by providing immediate condolences. This will often cause them to stop sharing. It is important that we allow Him to work in our conversations and lives.

WE USE THE BIBLE AS OUR GUIDE | We will resolve any disagreements biblically. When conflict or sin issues arise, we want to make sure we are honoring God and each other in the way we treat one another. While opinions may vary and positions may differ, we will look to Scripture as our final authority and submit to it.

SCRIPTURE RECAP (Mark 2:1-12)

Take time to read through the Scripture above as a group.

Jesus has divine authority to forgive our sins

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Let these questions be a framework for you as you lead your group. These questions are meant to open conversation and aid you in taking the conversation deeper by asking follow-up questions that lead to shepherding their heart. Shepherd well, be faithful, and make disciples.

QUESTION | Did you hear anything from the sermon that caught your attention or challenged you?

QUESTION | How does this passage demonstrate both the compassion and the authority of Christ?

QUESTION | What is our greatest need? Why is this need greater than all other needs?

QUESTION | What do we learn about faith in this story? How do we grow in our trust in Christ and strengthen our faith in the days ahead?

PRAYER REQUESTS

EPHESIANS 6:18: “And Pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all of the Lord’s people.”

Each week in our groups, we want to focus on the “Empty Chair.” Take time to pray over the names of people close to you but far from God as well as any items that were shared during your discussion time.
